2019-2020 Parent Verification of Marital and/or Tax Filing Status

Name: Last _____ First _____ UID# _____

Check this box if you plan to enroll for Summer 2019 (a separate Summer Aid Application is Required)

Your 2019-2020 FAFSA application has been identified by the Department of Education for potentially containing conflicting information between your Parent’s Marital Status and Tax Filing Status.

Log on to FAFSA.gov and make the proper corrections to your parent’s marital status and tax filing status. Please complete this form and return it to the Financial Aid and Scholarships office only if you feel that the FAFSA application is accurate and does not need to be corrected. Federal Regulations require that institutions verify the accuracy of this data and resolve any conflicting information.

Verification of Parent Marital Status and Filing Status (To be Completed by Parent)

Please Note:

- UCLA Financial Aid and Scholarships cannot proceed with processing your award until all required Financial Aid documents are Submitted and conflicting information is resolved.
- Your 2019-2020 FAFSA will be updated, as needed, based on the information provided on this form.
- Your tax filing status selection must be in the corresponding box, if you do not see it, select “Other.”

Head of Household Eligibility (To be Completed by Parent)

If you are legally married and filed your taxes as Head of Household for 2017, you may need to file an amended tax return (1040X) reflecting the correct filing status. If your tax professional indicated that you were eligible to file as head of household (despite being married); please continue to complete this form. Initial each of the following requirements below, only if the requirement is applicable to your tax filing circumstances.

Only complete the following section if you are legally married and filed a 1040 or 1040A as head of Household.

Considered Unmarried: Eligibility Requirements

For tax purposes, you may be Married but considered "Unmarried" if you meet All of the following requirements. See IRS Publication 17

- You filed a separate return.
- You paid more than half the cost to keeping up your home for the tax year.
- Your spouse did not live in your home during the last 6 months of the tax year. Your spouse is considered to live in your home even if he or she is temporarily absent due to special circumstance.
- Your home was the main home of your child, stepchild, or foster child for more than half the year.
- You must be able to claim an exemption for the child. However, you meet this test if you cannot claim the exemption only because the non-custodial parent can claim the child.

Head of Household Eligibility Requirements

You may be eligible to file head of household if you meet the requirements below. By initialing next to each requirement you are certifying that you meet this requirement. See IRS Publication 17

- You were Married but considered "Unmarried" on December 31, 2017. (If you initialed ALL of the previous criteria, initial here)
- You paid more than half the cost to keeping up your home for the tax year.
- A qualifying person lived with you in the home for more than half the year (except for temporary absences, such as school). However, if the qualifying person is your dependent parent, he or she does not have to live with you.
