

2022-2023 Petition for Independent Status

Purpose

This form is used to gather information regarding extraordinary circumstances that warrant the re-evaluation of your dependency status. In order to make exceptions to federal regulations, your appeal must be detailed and accurate, providing documentation. Please only submit this petition if you have already completed and submitted your 2022-2023 FAFSA or Dream Act application. If your petition is denied, you will be instructed to provide parental information on your FAFSA or Dream Act application.

Policies

This appeal is for students who no longer have any relationship with their parents for reasons such as, but not limited to, severe estrangement from parent, removal from home due to *abuse, parent incarceration or incapacitation, or parent's whereabouts are unknown.

The following circumstances do not qualify for appeal:

- Parents refusing to contribute to college education
- Parents unwilling to provide information on your financial aid application (i.e. FAFSA or California Dream Act Application);
- Parents do not claim student on income taxes
- Student is financially independent of parents

The California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act ("CANRA"), codified at California Penal Code §§ 11164-11174.3, requires that employers of Mandated Reporters (as defined in the Act) promote identification and reporting of child abuse or neglect. It is the policy of the University of California to comply with its obligations under the Act; to require that all University employees and administrators who are Mandated Reporters make required reports to child protection or law enforcement agencies; and more broadly to encourage all members of the University community who observe, have actual knowledge of, or reasonably suspect child abuse or neglect at a University facility or perpetrated by University personnel to promptly report the concern to appropriate external and University officials.*
