Types of Loans

There are several different types of loans available for Graduate Students to help cover college costs.

Federal Unsubsidized Loan

Unsubsidized loans are financed by the U.S Department of Education and the maximum annual unsubsidized loan amount is $20,500. Students must be enrolled at least half time (4 units) to receive funds.

Federal Graduate PLUS Loan

PLUS loans are available to graduate students enrolled at least half time (4 units) who have borrowed the maximum Unsubsidized loan amount per year. The borrower (you) and the UCLA Financial Aid and Scholarships office work with the Department of Education (ED) to complete the loan process.

Private Student Loans

Private loans are offered by lenders independently of the Department of Education. Private loans are best utilized only if eligibility for Federal Direct Loans has been exhausted. See our private loan guide on the Forms and Publications page of our website.

DREAM Student Loans

Available to undocumented grad students who meet DREAM Act Application requirements. Students can borrow up to $4,000 annually. Interest rates will be fixed at the same rates as Federal loans with no loan fees.

How To Apply

Unsubsidized, PLUS, DREAM loans

Students who submit a FAFSA or DREAM App will receive notification of their loan eligibility via their Financial Aid Notification (FAN) on MyUCLA.

Loans must be accepted via the student's FAN. Loans will not disburse until all requirements are completed. First-time Federal loan borrowers must also complete a Master Promissory Note and ASLA agreement at studentaid.gov as well as loan Entrance Counseling thru loans.ucla.edu/debt-management. DREAM Loan borrowers will need to complete online documents via the UCLA Student Loan Services & Collections website. (Instructions will be sent to you by email.)

If you do not need all of the loans offered to you, you can reduce or cancel your loans via MyUCLA. If eligible, remember to utilize your full unsubsidized loan eligibility before accepting any Graduate PLUS loan.

Your loan will be disbursed to your BruinBill account at the beginning of each term. Any funds remaining after your Tuition & Fee balance is paid will be refunded to you.
