Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeal

Students who have their financial aid suspended may submit a written appeal using the Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeal form. When filing an appeal, make sure that you provide a full explanation along with documentation, verifying the circumstances that led to your inability to meet the Standards for Satisfactory Academic Progress. Before filing an appeal, it is important that you seek assistance from your school or college advisor in order to explore ways of eliminating your deficiencies and to establish a realistic plan towards graduation.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeal Options

If you received a Financial Aid Suspension Letter or Courtesy Notification, you have an opportunity to appeal this decision.

If multiple deficiencies please only submit one SAP appeal.

Select ONE option that best describes your situation and complete the subsequent appeal form:

Completing Your Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeal – Section B

If you received a Financial Aid Suspension Letter or Courtesy Notification and are requesting additional terms, you have an opportunity to appeal this decision. Carefully read and follow the instructions below:

1. Write a detailed letter of appeal. This letter should include and describe the following points:
 - a. Explanation of the extenuating circumstances that impacted your ability to meet the minimum Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Standards. Include the term(s) these extenuating circumstances occurred.

Note: please indicate if your circumstances were COVID-19 related, (i.e. withdrawal from term).

- b. Plan of action indicating how you have addressed or will resolve the issue(s) which resulted in your inability to meet the Satisfactory Academic Progress requirements.
2. Provide copies of supporting documentation such as doctors' letters/bills, death certificate, obituary, police reports, or college transcripts.
3. Submit an Academic Plan. (section B, part II only.) This must include your expected graduation date, the courses and number of units you plan to complete each quarter and your College or School academic advisor's signature.
 - a. You must schedule an appointment with an academic advisor to complete this form and use the Academic Plan form provided in this packet.
4. Sign and date your letter of appeal. Make sure to include your student ID number.

Please note that the information you share in your appeal will be kept private, but not confidential. In some instances, we may be required to report incidents you disclose in your appeal to confidential sources on campus which may include the Dean of Students, CAPS, and/or University of California Police Department.

The following academic advising departments are prepared to help you with the development of your academic plan.

Graduate students should seek academic counseling from an appropriate departmental representative.
